ENTERTAINING SWANSEA FROM BUSK TIL DAWN

Good quality street entertainment helps create a vibrant and dynamic atmosphere and adds to the experience of shopping or visiting Swansea City Centre.

Buskers are a popular aspect of Swansea's street-scene and make a positive contribution to what's on in the City Centre.

Whether you're a professional street performer, story-teller, dancer, aspiring musician or drama student, Swansea City Centre's authorised busking and street entertainment scheme, From Busk Til Dawn, provides a regulated, safe and accessible platform for performers to gain invaluable experience entertaining the public as well as a modest income from busking.

The Scheme, which has been running since 2009, also ensures activities are co-ordinated, promoted and supported by local buskers and City Centre traders.

Permits

Permission to perform in the City Centre is provided by City Centre Management by completing the simple form overleaf.

Buskers Code

- Pitches are available on a first come first served basis and are rotated, if necessary, every 2 hours
- Use a receptacle for donations; do not actively collect or beg for money
- The use of a PA system is permitted, however, consider the volume not to cause a nuisance to nearby premises
- The Rangers are there to help you! Follow their advice and work with them to comply with the rules governing the City Centre
- Be risk aware and ensure your performance is safe! Do not put yourself or the public in danger
- The most successful performers are those who are friendly and professional – dress and act appropriately at all times
- Do not attempt to perform under the influence of or in the possession of drugs or alcohol
- Selling CDs or merchandise when busking requires a street trading licence. Contact ☎ 01792 633090 for details
